 - viii. Certifications from at least two (2) banks, or two (2) public companies or secondary licensees or two (2) large corporations that they have engaged its services;
 - ix. Notarized certification of the applicant signed by its president or managing partner that it meets all the qualification requirements under paragraph II(3) above; that it has not been declared liable by the Commission or any competent court for violation of the Corporation Code, SRC or any relevant laws and regulations, and that the applicant and/or any of its directors/officers or partners, or property appraisers or valuers have no adverse judgment against them on any administrative, civil or criminal case involving its appraisal business. The adverse judgment must be final and executory;

- x. List of any pending administrative, civil or criminal case filed against the company or any of its officers and employees;
 - xi. Copy of the audited financial statements for the recent three years including the period due for filing;
 - xii. Copy of professional liability insurance policy and sworn undertaking to provide professional liability insurance as required by its clients; and
 - xiii. Copies of two (2) appraisal or valuation reports issued by the applicant, as may be requested by the Commission based on its selection criteria such as amount involved, purpose of the valuation and secondary license of the company-client;
 - xiv. A description of the framework from which the company's internal control procedures are based, and the code or standard it follows to ensure the integrity of valuation reports.
4. The accreditation that may be granted by the Commission under these Guidelines shall be effective for a period of five (5) years, subject to the following requirements:
- i. Payment of an annual fee of Two Thousand Pesos (P2,000.00) not later than January 31st of the year;
 - ii. Submission of copies of renewed licenses of the company's appraisers or valuation specialists within fifteen (15) business days from expiration date;
 - iii. Compliance with operational and reportorial requirements under these Guidelines.
5. The appraisal company or PSO may apply for the renewal of its accreditation six (6) months before the expiration thereof. The approval of such application shall be subject to compliance by the company of the requirements of accreditation under paragraph II and its record of observance of the operating and reporting requirements of these Guidelines.
6. Scope and Limitation of Accreditation
- i. The accreditation by the Commission of the appraisal company shall be permissive only and shall not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of its engagement or practice.
 - ii. The review of the qualification and sample appraisal or valuation report of the company shall be based only on the documents submitted and the representations therein by the appraisal company or PSO. Parties directly concerned on a report issued by an appraisal company or PSO such as the reporting company, external auditor, creditor and investors, are expected to conduct due diligence towards reliance of the contents of the report.
 - iii. The Commission shall not be liable for any liability or loss that may arise from the selection of the appraisal company or PSO accredited by the Commission.

III. OPERATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

All appraisal companies or PSOs accredited by the Commission shall comply with the following operational requirements:

1. Strictly observe the Code of Ethics applicable to professional appraisers or valuation specialists;
2. Indicate in the appraisal or valuation reports the following information:
 - i. The complete name and address of the company including its SEC accreditation number and validity period;
 - ii. The appraiser or valuation specialist's complete name, office address, the validity periods and numbers of license and registration with PRC and PRBRES or Board of Accountancy, respectively, APO Receipt Number, PTR Number and his TIN;
 - iii. The purpose of the appraisal or valuation, the description and location of the asset and the type of business of the client company, e.g., bank, insurance company, financing company. If the client is a regulated entity like a bank, the report shall indicate whether or not the appraisal company or PSO has considered the appraisal or fair valuation requirements of the client's primary regulator like the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas;
 - iv. The adoption of the current edition of International Valuation Standards (IVS) in the conduct of the subject valuation engagement. If the IVS has not been fully adopted, specify the standards that were not observed and the impact thereof. If the purpose however, of the appraisal is for financial reporting, the appraiser shall observe the requirements of the PFRS. For valuation of asset other than real estate, the valuation specialist shall comply with the requirements of PFRS and other best practices and standards on asset valuation, and shall fully disclose in his report such basis of valuation and all relevant information;
 - v. Such other information that is prescribed under the IVS or other applicable framework.

To determine compliance with the above requirements and the representation in the reports, the Commission may require an accredited appraisal company or PSO to submit a copy of any of its appraisal or valuation reports and supporting documents. For this purpose, the appraisal company or PSO shall indicate in its engagement contracts that it is obligated to provide to the Commission said documents upon its order.

3. An accredited appraisal company or PSO shall maintain the following prescribed qualifications:
 - i. It is 100% Filipino-owned pursuant to the 9th Foreign Investment Negative List and it is managed and operated by licensed appraisers or valuation specialists;
 - ii. It has all the requisite business permits and licenses to operate the business;
 - iii. It has at least two (2) qualified appraisers or valuation specialists, and adequate number of technical and administrative personnel for the conduct of valuation. The qualifications for appraisers and valuation specialists prescribed under paragraph II(3) of these Guidelines shall be complied with;
 - iv. It has unimpaired outstanding capital stock of not less than Five Million Pesos (P5,000,000.00);

- v. It has effective internal controls and checks and balances to ensure the quality and integrity of valuation reports;
- vi. It has a professional liability insurance for errors and omissions in the amount of at least Five Hundred Thousand Pesos (P500,000.00). If applicable, it complies with its sworn undertaking that it will provide professional liability insurance in such higher amount as the client corporation shall require to adequately cover the risk exposure of the appraisal company.

IV. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

1. All accredited appraisal companies or PSOs shall submit within one hundred five (105) days from end of its fiscal year, an annual report under SEC Form AC-AR duly signed by its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Finance Officer, or Managing Partner, as the case may be. The report shall provide the following information:
 - i. List of licensed property appraisers or valuation specialists with the following information for each: position in the firm or company, validity periods and numbers of license and registration with PRC and PRBRES or Board of Accountancy, respectively, APO Receipt Number, PTR Number and TIN;
 - i. List of clients for the immediately preceding year and a brief description of the engagement for each, e.g., assets covered by the valuation, values, and basis of valuation;
 - ii. Summary of financial information based on audited financial statements that were recently due for filing; and
 - iii. Other information that may materially affect the operation of the company.
2. An accredited appraisal company or PSO shall notify the Commission of any finding of discrepancy in the value resulting from its valuation and the amount indicated in the report or document of any of its clients submitted to the Commission. This shall be made by the appraisal company or PSO in writing within five (5) business days from its finding.

V. FINES AND PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

1. Failure to comply with the prescribed qualification and documentary requirements under these Guidelines shall be a valid ground for the denial of the application for accreditation as an appraisal company or PSO.
2. Subject to the limits provided under Section 54 of the SRC, the following shall be the consequence or penalty in case a corporation covered under these Guidelines engages an appraisal company or PSO that is not accredited by the Commission:

Covered Companies	Consequence/Penalty
i. Public companies and secondary licensees of the Commission, including their significant subsidiaries as defined under SRC Rule 68, that propose to receive asset in exchange for shares of stock, as provided for in Section 62 of the Corporation Code	Denial of the request for approval of the consideration

Covered Companies	Consequence/Penalty
ii. Issuers of securities to the public or public companies that propose to transfer their property to another entity in exchange for shares of stock or cash or property, including the contracting entity that will exchange its asset with that of the issuers of securities or public companies	1/10 of 1% of the carrying amount property transferred or received whichever is higher
iii. Public companies and secondary licensees and their significant subsidiaries, that adopt the fair value model in measuring their properties pursuant to the PFRS	1/100 of 1% of the fair value of the property recorded in the financial statements without the required valuation of an accredited appraisal company
iv. Issuers of securities to the public or public companies covering their property that would be declared as dividend or the non-financial assets that they would receive arising from a business combination	1/100 of 1% of the amount of dividend declared or the non-financial assets received, without the required valuation of an accredited appraisal company

For entities that are not public companies or secondary licensees and the asset involved is real estate, a request for approval of the consideration shall be denied if - (i) the property appraiser or valuer is not licensed by the PRBRES; and (2) the appraisal report does not contain the appraiser or valuer's signature, complete name, office address, the validity periods and numbers of license and registration with PRC and PRBRES, respectively, APO Receipt Number, PTR Number and TIN.

3. The Commission may require the amendment and re-issuance of an appraisal or valuation report if it does not comply with the prescribed contents under these Guidelines and there is a misrepresentation as to compliance with the adopted framework. A misrepresentation arises when the report indicates compliance with the standards but it is not supported by adequate documents or the supporting documents reflect otherwise. Lack of clarity of the information in the report may likewise constitute a misrepresentation. The re-issuance shall be without prejudice to any penalty that may be imposed on the appraisal company or PSO for incomplete report or for misrepresentation.
4. Pursuant to the power of the Commission to impose administrative sanctions under Section 54 of the SRC, an appraisal company which misrepresents itself as an appraisal company accredited with the Commission or agrees to undertake an appraisal activity covered by these Guidelines without the required accreditation shall be subject to a penalty of Fifty Thousand Pesos (P50,000.00). The appraisal report issued by such company shall not be acceptable to support any application or report of a corporation covered by these Guidelines.
5. An appraiser or valuation specialist who practices without the required valid license, as can be shown in any documents submitted to the Commission, shall be referred to the PRC for appropriate imposition of penalties, administrative and/or criminal.
6. An accredited appraisal company or PSO that fails to comply with any of the operational and reportorial requirements of valuation report or misrepresentation therein, shall be imposed a fine of Ten Thousand Pesos (P10,000.00) for each violation, after due notice and hearing. For reportorial violation, a daily fine of P100 for each of day of delay shall be added to the said basic fine. Penalties for second offenses shall be imposed with a penalty twice the amount of the fine for the first offense.

A third offense for the same violation shall be considered a delinquency and shall be a sufficient ground for the revocation of the accreditation of the erring appraisal company or PSO.

7. An accredited appraisal company or PSO that misrepresents in its application or appraisal/valuation report, shall be imposed with penalties of Ten Thousand Pesos (P10,000.00) and Fifty Thousand Pesos (P50,000), respectively. For second offense, it shall be imposed with a penalty twice the amount of the fine for the first offense plus a one-year suspension of accreditation if the misrepresentation is on the appraisal or valuation report.

A third offense for the same violation shall be considered a delinquency and shall be a sufficient ground for the revocation of the accreditation of the erring appraisal company and the imposition of fines of Twenty Thousand Pesos (P20,000) and Two Hundred Thousand Pesos (P200,000.00) for misrepresentation in the application and report, respectively.

VI. TRANSITORY CLAUSE

1. SEC Memorandum Circular No. 4, Series of 2010 (Guidelines on Property Valuations) is hereby superseded by this Circular subject to the prescribed transition indicated herein.
2. The requirements of these Guidelines covering the following entities and transactions shall start on 01 March 2014:
