Peter Lackó - new Human Resource Services leader in PwC

On 1 August, Peter Lackó was appointed a new leader at Human Resource Services practice of PwC in Slovakia.

Peter is responsible for managing the team of PwC consultants and managers and for supervising the conducted projects - in close cooperation with our regional PwC network.

Peter Lackó has more than 15 years of experience in the field of HR management - including training and development. He has been holding managerial positions for over 7 years. His professional experience includes the work with both internal and external clients. Most of his professional time he worked in the area of financial services, IT and telecommunications.

"I am delighted that I will be able to gain and share my experience in managing and transforming human capital in Slovakia." says Peter about his joining PwC.
