

Risk-based audit (RBA) tax assessment services

Move forward to strengthen tax compliance level and manage tax audit risk

The Revenue Department conducts RBA tax risk assessments to categorize taxpayers into different risk levels and focus detailed audits on high-risk taxpayers.

How can PwC help?

Our RBA tax assessment engine provides you with insights into your potential tax audit risk, similar to the evaluations conducted by the Revenue Department. By understanding your risk level, you can proactively develop and implement a tax risk mitigation plan in advance and enhance tax governance level of your company.
