The partners of PwC Trinidad and Tobago are pleased to announce the appointment of Nicole Joseph as a Tax and Legal Services Partner effective September 23, 2019.

Nicole started her professional career with PwC Trinidad and Tobago and since then, she has held various senior roles with other major professional services firms locally and in the United Kingdom. Throughout her 20 plus years of professional experience, Nicole has led many significant tax compliance and advisory engagements for major local and international clients in the energy, financial services, manufacturing and retail sectors.

Over her distinguished career, Nicole led tax due diligence assignments, advised on the structuring of business investments and interpreted tax treaties. She also assisted clients with Board of Inland Revenue tax audits, disputes, objections and appeals. Nicole has presented at numerous tax conferences and appeared on several media programmes discussing budgets and topical tax subjects. She is currently a Member of Council and Chairs the Taxation Committee of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Trinidad and Tobago (ICATT).

Nicole returns home to PwC as a Partner in our Tax and Legal Services department where she will join a vibrant team of tax professionals; contributing to the continued growth of our Tax Compliance and Advisory Services in Trinidad and Tobago and the wider Southern Caribbean.

Please join us as we welcome Nicole to our Partnership!
