The President of Ukraine signed the Law introducing criminal liability of legal entities

On 1 September 2014, the Law introducing criminal liability of legal entities* will come into force.

According to this Law, legal entities will be liable for the commitment, by their officials (persons who act on behalf of legal entities), of a range of crimes, in particular: legalisation (laundering) of profits derived from crime, bribing officials of other legal entities or persons who provide public services, crimes related to violation of antimonopoly legislation.

If a legal entity is found guilty of committing any of the mentioned crimes a penalty between UAH 85,000 and UAH 1,275,000 could be imposed. In worst case scenario the company may be liquidated.

We expect for the special regulations provided by relevant governmental bodies.
