

Resolution of commercial disputes

Litigation and non-judicial settlement of disputes arising from commercial activity

Legal dispute resolution service from a “Big Four” firm

Attorneys Association “PwC Legal” is the legal division of PwC Ukraine’s service. The team of lawyers and attorneys-at-law specializes in both local and international legislation, and is a part of a network of 2,500 lawyers across 83 countries.

The commercial litigation practice has been a part of PwC Ukraine since 1993. We offer legal support in the resolution of complex disputes arising from commercial activity, in particular by means of litigation and arbitration procedures as well as alternative dispute resolution.

The team of AA “PwC Legal” offers legal advice and representation of clients at commercial, civil and administrative courts. Matters include insolvency and financial rehabilitation proceedings, as well as enforcement. Attorneys of the firm have substantial experience in the defense of clients against law enforcement authorities and other state bodies, particularly with respect to searches, inspections and investigations of commercial offences.
