

Preparing for tomorrow's workforce, today – Session 1

PwC have conducted a global survey of more than 1,200 business and HR leaders to identify the most important organisational capabilities that businesses need to consider when preparing for tomorrow's work, workers and workplace so they have a workforce that is prepared to take on the disruptive challenges ahead.

In Session 1 of our HRD, we will discuss:

- How we work, the place of work within our lives and even what we mean by work are being transformed.
- What are organisations doing to prepare for the future? And where do they need to step up?

We are delighted to invite you to join us as we welcome our guest speaker, Nicole Wakefield, South East Asia Consulting Regional People and Organisation Leader to share with you a deep dive into the key themes of our study and key actions that you can take today to keep ahead tomorrow.

Employment tax trends and challenges – Session 2

The Paying Taxes report is a joint unique study between PwC and The World Bank Group incorporating up to twelve years' worth of data on tax systems in 190 economies round the world. The study's databank provides an unique insight into how governments around the world choose to tax companies operating in their jurisdictions and the mechanisms by which those taxes are levied, including income (profits) taxes, employment (labour) taxes, and other taxes (property taxes).

In Session 2 of our HRD, our second guest speaker, Grace Huang, PwC Singapore Global Mobility Services Director, will discuss key employment tax trends and challenges in South East Asia.

Join us for a morning discussion with Vietnam's top HR leaders. We look forward to seeing you at the event.
