Speaker profile:

Nguyen Hong Son
Director
Customs and International Trade – PwC Vietnam

Prior to joining PwC, Son worked for the Vietnam customs department for over 12 years. Son focuses on customs procedures, trade policies, classification, inward processing relief and free trade agreements.

Son worked at PwC from December 2009 to April 2017 as a senior customs manager. Son then had a year working in a customs role for an MNC in Singapore and then re-joined PwC in May 2018.

Son has been advising multinational companies on setting up and modifying business operations to optimise supply chain models and in resolving disputes in customs audits regarding valuation, classification and contract manufacturing. He has been in an advisory role for many leading companies in the luxury, consumer and industrial goods sectors.

While in Singapore, he was a member of the regional trade compliance team of a FT500 company and gained international experience by dealing with import-export issues in the APAC region.

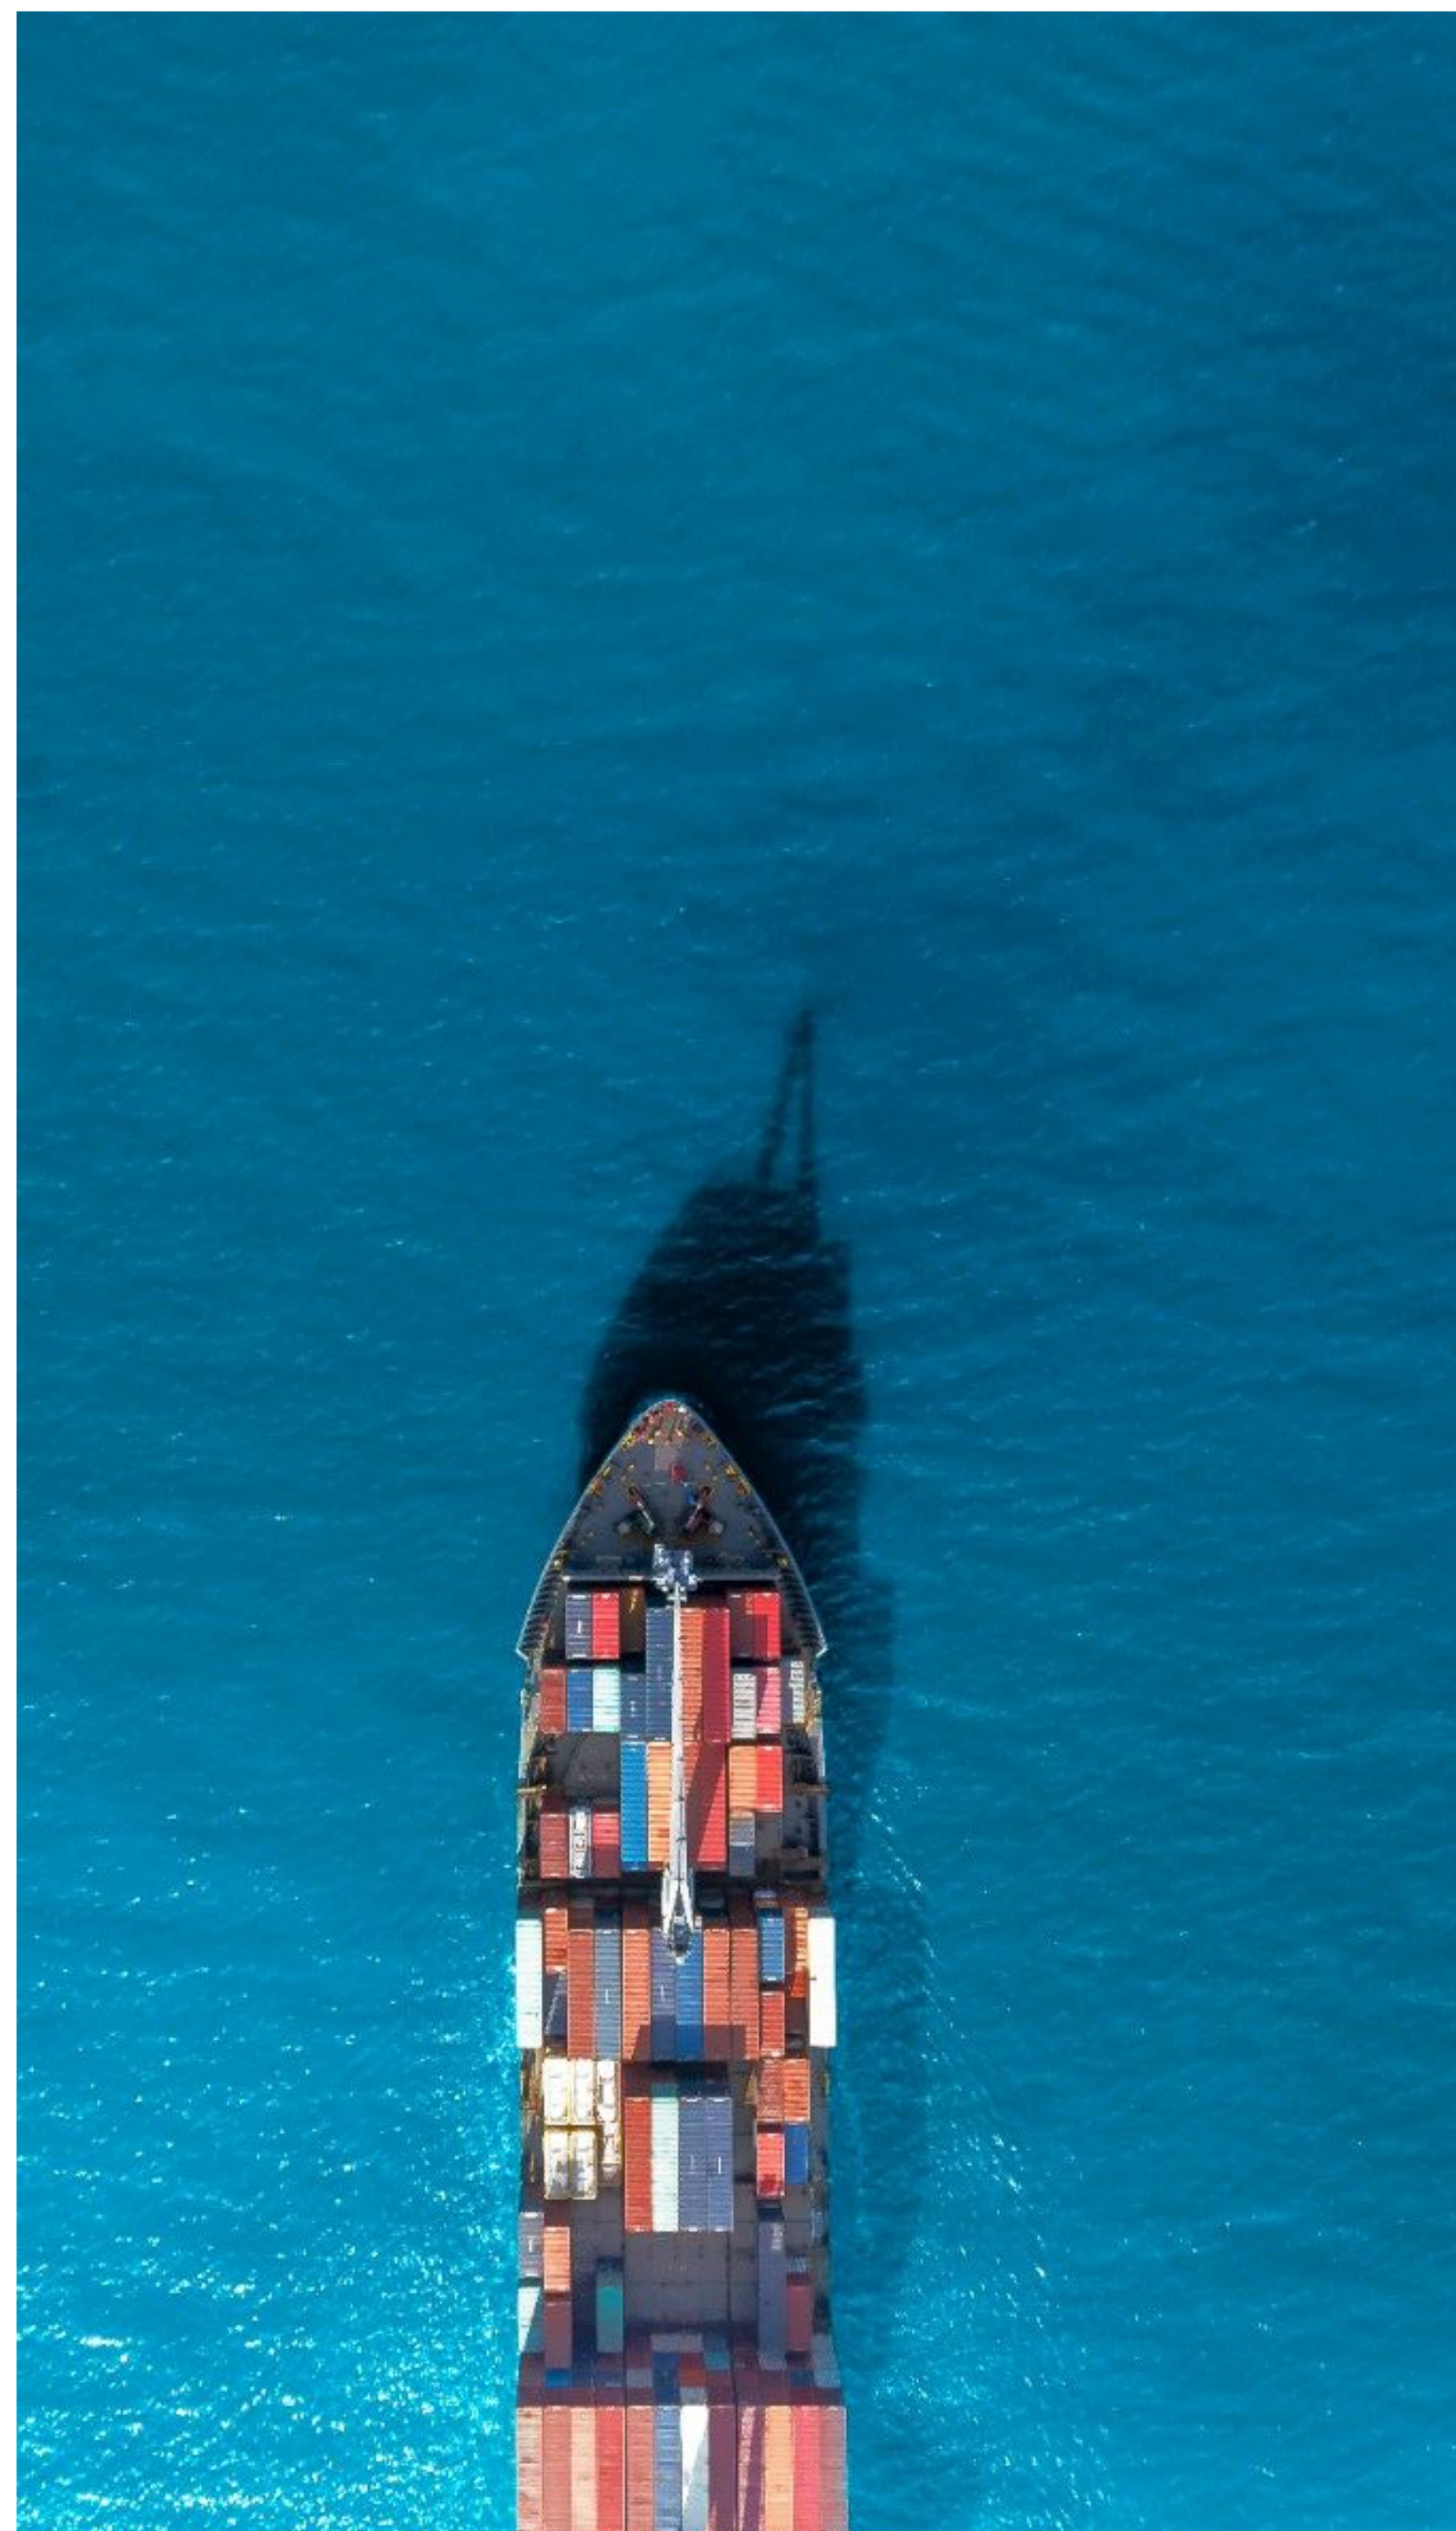

Nguyen Vu Phu Khanh
Senior Manager
Customs and International Trade – PwC Vietnam

Khanh used to be a customs official in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. He had been leading the customs brokerage team of multi-national logistical companies for years before joining the consulting environment.

Khanh has been serving several clients operating in multiple business sectors including FMCG, cosmetics and fashion, automotive, food & beverages, pharmaceuticals & healthcare, retail, manufacturing, EPE, etc.

The following topics will be covered in our customs webinar sharing recent development regarding the EU-Vietnam Free Trade Agreement (EVFTA):

- Understanding the rules of origin under the EVFTA
- Utilising the EVFTA opportunities
