Dear Sir/Madam,

The tax and regulatory landscape has been rapidly changing in 2020 and 2021. There are many implementing regulations of the Law on tax administration which may impact the tax filing and obligations for banks. In addition, the draft Decree on personal data protection is under the final stage of consultation and expected to come into effect in 1 December 2021.

From accounting/auditing perspective, there are some new and draft Circulars which may impact financial statements and operation of credit institutions from 2021.

Thus, PwC Vietnam is pleased to invite you to the tax and regulatory update and discuss any concerns that you may have.

Yours faithfully,

Nghiem Hoang Lan
Partner
